

BBC School Report

On Thursday 11th March, eight Year 9 students and two Year 13 Media students came together along with a representative from the BBC with the intention of making a news report on the day's news for the BBC School Report initiative. After spending the morning scouring the newspapers and websites, using rules established by the BBC such as the 'two source rule' and the concept that 'if it bleeds, it leads!', the students scripted a 15 minute news report that included international, national, local and sports news and then went 'live' at 2pm.

As well as filming a broadcast from the 'studio', students filmed a special report on the state of British education and put together a pre-recorded report on the school's production of 'Guys and Dolls'. The students worked very hard under the pressure of a real TV studio and had a thoroughly enjoyable day.

The product of all their work can now be viewed on the school website....enjoy!

Art, Design and Technology News

The 34th Exhibition of Young Art in Bexley is currently being held at Hall Place.

We are very pleased to announce that Year 13 students Sonia Mantilari and Michael Hobbs have both won awards for their respective art and photography work, currently being displayed at Hall Place. Their awards will be presented by the Mayor of Bexley at a special ceremony this week. Hayley Lewis, Amy Fisher and Alexandra Button are also displaying some excellent work. We are very proud of them all for their hard work and creativity.

The exhibition continues until Monday 5th April.

Jack Petchey Speak Out Challenge Regional Final

Congratulations to Alicja Rabikowska, Catherine Garton and Oreoluwa Adeyemi in Year 10 who have been selected to take part in the Jack Petchey Speak Out Challenge Regional Final.

The challenge itself allows students to formulate opinions and arguments in constructive ways and teaches them how to confidently express their opinions through speech.

After being selected from 25 students who completed a whole day's worth of activities in public speaking last ECM Day, these three students had to deliver a presentation to the rest of their year group in assembly.

The selected students presented very confidently and will now go on to speak at the Final, which will be held at The Business Academy Bexley on 26th March at 6pm for those who would like to go along and support.
